Stand in solidarity with communities impacted by dirty coal. MJSB will show you the effects of coal industry abuse and Mountain Top Removal, and it will give you a way to fight back. There will be education, community service, speakers, hiking, music, poetry, action, and more!

You can get involved today! MJSB is planned by a collective of folks from around the US. We need your help right away bottomlining and supporting media, groundwork, logistics, outreach, fundraising and more. This is a great opportunity to work with amazing people, network with great groups like SEN and SEAC and learn new skills. Contact Eric for more info - (615) 243 4345 info@mjsb.org.
